Mission Statement

"As a community inspired by the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and our ancestral heritage, we the parishioners of St. Joseph and St. Anthony profess to proclaim God's goodness. And through our faith and commitment to the Holy Word we join together in spirit, truth, love and service working together for the good of our church parish."

Please Note: Any information for the bulletin should be submitted to the church office by 12:00 noon Wednesday. It should be only in written form and can be sent by Fax or email.

The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time "He summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two." This Sunday we read the first sending of the Apostles to preach, teach, and heal. For many of us, it can be easy to think we "just don't have enough" to be disciples and evangelists ourselves. We don't have enough education and training. We don't have enough experience talking to people about Jesus. We don't pray enough. We don't have enough faith. If you look at the Apostles in today's Gospel reading, they didn't have much either. "No food, no sack, no money in their belts." They didn't plan out their itinerary or book their lodging in advance. From what we know of the Apostles, they were not the religiously trained and educated ones. They were fisherman, tax collectors, and political activists. But what does being a fisherman require? Someone like Peter needed a strong work ethic to rise at strange hours. He needed patient calm to wait for the catch. Once ashore, he needed a savvy mind to fetch a good price for his labors. As Peter became a fisher of men, he would need diligence to persevere through the hard journeys, long days, and persecution that awaited him. He would need patient calm with those who disagreed with him. As the leader of the Apostles, he would need a savvy mind to navigate challenges facing the early Church. From one perspective, Peter has nothing to offer the mission of Jesus. Thinking more creatively, one can see that -- joined with faith and love -- perhaps Peter had everything he needed. Jesus sends you as well. As you take stock of your own talents, consider how they might be offered as a gift to others. Maybe you already have more than enough.

PASTOR'S CORNER:

This weekend as we celebrate the 15th Sunday of Ordinary Time, we celebrate a tri-historic weekend in our faith community; The Centennial of the Diocese, The Founding of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Broussard, LA and The Ordination of Father Harold Robert Perry, SVD to the Episcopacy. Father Perry was the first African-American ordained to the Episcopacy in the United States during the 20th century. This weekend is one of great gratitude and joy.

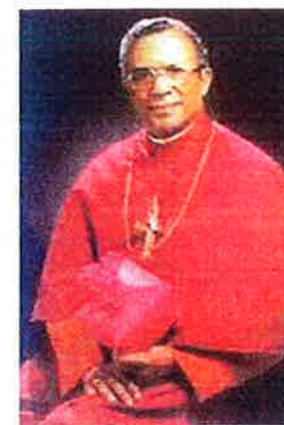

In this celebration, we realize that much has been done by many people. We realize how much suffering has been endured, how many sacrifices have been made, the pain and burdens that have been endured and the storms that have been experienced over the years. Some of us have personally experienced these while others have only heard about them. Today, we must continue to move forward and build on what they have built. This is an awesome task. We are all involved. No one is exempt or immunized. So today, let us all realize that we need His grace to continue to build a kingdom of justice and peace.

Today our Bishop's Medals will be given to four of our elders as we thank them for their commitments of faith, courage, hope and love for our community.

Today, Senator Gerald Boudreaux and Representative Terry Landry will honor the Perry family and St. Joseph Catholic Church with a resolution from our governor to proclaim their service and commitment to our community.

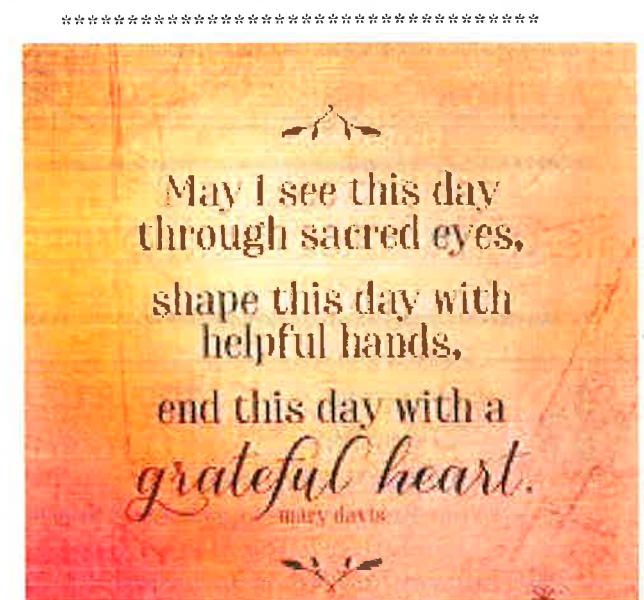

Today, I pray that His Kingdom Come, a kingdom of Justice and Peace.
~ Rev Thomas James, SVD~
